

Overview

SAFETY PERFORMANCE SURVEY

During the summer of 2016, the Directorate launched a survey produced in conjunction with ERA member Baines Simmons, in order to measure Safety Performance and to assist in measuring ERA airline member effectiveness in managing operational risk. The survey, which was disseminated independently to airline CEOs and their safety managers, was designed to assist members with maintaining their safety standards and approvals and to assist in any business risk decisions.

